

Powerflow Lead-free 500g 59955

- Lead-free wire for use on potable water supplies
- Manufactured to BS EN 29453
- Produces perfect joints
- 3.25mm diameter
- Melting point of 227-228°C
- Available on 250 gm and 500 gm reels.

This lead free solder wire is designed for all plumbing uses and is manufactured to produce perfect joints quickly and effectively, whilst meeting all relevant health and safety and environmental requirements for potable water supplies.

Application

Powerflow lead-free solder wire for plumbing applications, including potable water. Fernox is the leading internationally recognised manufacturer of solder alloys and fluxes for plumbing and heating applications. Its comprehensive range of highly effective solid solder wire is designed to produce perfect joints, quickly and effectively, whilst meeting health and safety and environmental requirements for potable water supplies.

Package, Handling & Safety

Powerflow Lead-Free solder is available in 500g reels.

Specification

Melting Point Range: 227-228°C

Diameter: 3.25mm

Single Item

Weight kg 0.000
Barcode EAN 5014551599550

Outer Carton

Outer Depth mm 0
Outer Weight kg 0.000

Last modification

12-02-2021 (d/m/y)